ABOUT US

Founded in 1963, Good Shepherd Ministries serves people who struggle with homelessness and poverty.

Good Shepherd Ministries responds creatively and effectively to the underlying causes of homelessness.

Initiatives include:

Good Shepherd Centre, which offers meals, shelter, clothing, medical care, addictions counselling, help with finding housing and more. Services are provided to anyone in need, without charge or distinction;

Barrett House, Toronto's first supportive residence for people living with HIV/AIDS; and

St. Joseph's Residence, a supportive home for seniors with a history of homelessness.

Good Shepherd Ministries strives to promote and protect human dignity. Services are offered to anyone in need, in a spirit of hospitality, compassion, acceptance, and faith.

Good Shepherd Ministries is a mission of the Hospitaller Order of St. John of God.

GOOD SHEPHERD CENTRE

Since 1963, the Centre has welcomed anyone in need and provided, free of charge, the basic necessities of life.

The Centre offers:

- Overnight shelter and a hot breakfast to 95 homeless men;
- Meals for anyone in need from 2 to 4 pm every day
- Daily drop-in, clothing room and access to showers
- Daily medical clinic operated by a staff nurse and partner organizations
- Resettlement Program to help people find and maintain suitable, affordable housing
- DARE Program: a pre and post detox program for people struggling with addictions
- Pastoral Care Program, offering counselling and support to meet spiritual needs
- Veterans' Transition Services

BARRETT HOUSE

Opened in 1986, Barrett House is Toronto's first supportive housing residence for people living with HIV and AIDS.

Today, Barrett House continues to provide a supportive home for six individuals who have exhausted their resources in their battle against HIV/AIDS. At Barrett House, these individuals can live out the remainder of their lives with dignity and respect.

ST. JOSEPH'S RESIDENCE

As Canada's population ages, the number of homeless seniors increases. Since 1999, St. Joseph's Residence has provided supportive housing for eight seniors with a history of homelessness.

Seniors who live at St. Joseph's Residence may struggle with physical and mental health issues, addictions and social isolation.

Caring staff who understand these challenges make it possible for residents to live out their senior years in an atmosphere of acceptance and respect.
